Improving Lives with Insurance

INSURANCE from Page 1

It was in 2004 that Geon became an agent Mutual of Omaha, a leading provider of life insurance, Medicare supplement insurance, disability insurance products and annuities.

The relationship between Geon and Mutual of Omaha can be described as nothing but 'mutually benefitting'.

"Working for this company has been extremely rewarding as they have provided me and my team with quality tools to help assist our current and prospective clients," says Geon.

Geon says her greatest reward comes from helping families understanding the importance of having quality insurance, and getting the most out of their coverage.

"Since working with Mutual of Omaha I have helped a lot of families in the British Virgin Islands by educating them about life insurance, and the great need for life insurance especially with children at home."

"No one gets left behind when you have life insurance. It is a family protection and also the great features of it is that you can be your own beneficiary once you are alive."

"There are two types of life insurance - Term and Universal. Term policy gives payout for only death, but with Universal policy, it builds cash over a period time that you can get from your policy which can be used for retirement, education, funeral expenses, emergency expenses, or any other expenses," Geon explains.

UNDERSTANDING THE SEASON OF LENT

MARCH 1, marks the beginning of Lent. As people all across the world – Christians and non-Christians alike – take time out to observe this special period, Mutual Insurance BVI Agency did some digging and came across some interesting information on the season. Take a read.

Why is Lent for 40 days and what is its meaning?

The Lent period reflects when Jesus fasted and suffered in the desert for 40 days and 40 nights, before he started his ministry.

According to the Bible, he was tempted by Satan during this time, but each time he managed to refuse his temptations.

People follow Jesus' example and give up vices in a bid to grow closer to God as Easter approaches.

In the United States, Shrove Tuesday or Pancake Day, occurs the day before Lent begins, symbolising when Christians would eat up foods such as milk and eggs before fasting.

What is Ash Wednesday?

Ash Wednesday is officially the start of Lent but the exact date changes each year depending upon when Easter falls.

To mark the day, clergy all over the world burn palm from the previous year's Palm Sunday services to create ash.

This is then rubbed across people's foreheads in the shape of the cross as they are reminded "For dust you are and to dust you shall return".

The ceremony is meant to show followers that their lives are short and they must live them to the fullest.

This sees Lent begin and it continues until the Thursday before Easter weekend.

Where does the tradition of fasting come from?

Lent and fasting go hand in hand for many in the Christian church.

Many followers abstain from certain food or temptations, following Jesus' 40-day fast in the desert in preparation for his public ministry.

Fasting has been practiced for centuries within a number of religions and culture, and is featured within Jewish culture in the Old Testament.

For example, Queen Esther asks the Jewish nation to come together in prayer and fasting, and Christians often combine the two practices nowadays.

Caribbean Trivia

Did you know...?

- Flying kites is a popular pastime year-round in the Caribbean. However, the practice peaks around Easter weekend in islands like Barbados, Trinidad, Bermuda, and Grenada. It is symbolic of Jesus' resurrection from the grave and His eventual ascension into Heaven. These events feature impressive creations, with massive kites emblazoned with creative designs.
- 2. Easter dinner is a wonderful part of Easter celebrations. Of course there is the tradition of no red meat eaten on Good Friday, and eating fish and vegetables becomes the rule. Easter season in Jamaica is also time for the island's premier local food event: the Trelawny Yam Festival, which is held Easter Monday, features great yam preparations.
